This was then followed by an activity to engage the students and show the metier of the club.

ACTIVITY DESCRIPTION:

A fun quiz testing the technical and pop culture knowledge relevant to the times was conducted. This helped students learn a couple of new things while enjoying the experience of participation. Each person was asked to raise their hands if they were to be offered a chance to answer said question. When picked, they were asked to clearly state the answer so as to conduct the activity efficiently. There were no eliminations, the scores were added up after each round and were carried into the next one.

ROUND 1:

Technical Round

This round mainly entailed questions seeking technical knowledge accumulated through the classes and some basic IT related questions. One of the four options were correct.

ROUND 2:

Pop Culture

This round tested the pop culture mettle of the students providing them with one option to choose out of four.

ROUND 3:

Pop Culture Part 2

This round had a range of questions from guess the dialogue to guess famous personalities testing the general awareness of the participants. No options were provided for your round.
