Event Description:

Department of AI & ML and Alumni Association, NHCE have taken an initiative to conduct the Alumni Talk on “From Aspirations to Achievements: My Placement Journey with a Japanese Company”.

Speaker: Om Kumar Patra

Designation: AI Engineer, VeBulin, Tsukuba, Ibaraki, Japan

Date: 03rd October 2024

Time: 11:00 am - 12:00 pm

Venue: A007

On 03rd October 2024, Om Kumar Patra (2020-2024 Alumni), an AI Engineer at VeBulin, Japan, shared his inspiring placement journey at New Horizon College of Engineering. The event, held from 11:00 am to 12:00 pm for VA at venue A007, attracted students eager to learn from his experiences.

Om Kumar began his session by reflecting on his early aspirations of working in Japan, a country known for its technological prowess and innovation. His fascination with AI, combined with a strong work ethic, fueled his determination to secure a placement in a competitive environment.

He described the rigorous selection process, detailing how his academic foundation and problem-solving abilities in AI set him apart. He emphasized the importance of adapting to Japanese work culture, where precision, dedication, and teamwork are highly valued. Om Kumar highlighted the role of continuous learning, especially in AI and machine learning, in helping him stay ahead in a rapidly evolving industry.

The talk also covered the support Om Kumar received from mentors and peers, which played a critical role in shaping his career. He encouraged students to embrace challenges, seek out opportunities for growth, and maintain a global mindset to succeed in today's interconnected world.

In conclusion, Om Kumar Patra's journey from aspirations to achievements stands as an inspiring example for current students. His story underscored the importance of persistence, preparation, and adaptability in achieving professional goals, particularly in an international setting like Japan.

The event concluded with an engaging Q&A session, where Om Kumar shared practical advice on preparing for placements, especially in international companies.
